On May 13, 2011, get ready for one of the most informative, exciting dental presentations you will ever attend!

The 5th District of the Alabama Dental Association is fortunate to present

Dr. John Flucke

at Classic on Noble 1024 Noble Street, Anniston Alabama

Dr. Flucke is a true Technology Evangelist for the dental profession. In addition to being a full-time dentist in Lees Summit, MO (a suburb of Kansas City), he serves as Technology Editor to Dental Products Report and is the Technology Editor for the Missouri Dental Association publication. He also blogs about technology and life at blog.denticle.com.

Dr. Flucke uses technology in every aspect of his practice and is always pushing his office to be on the leading edge of dental technology. His office uses networked intraoral cameras, high speed light curing, digital radiography, digital photography, computerized practice management, operatory computers, digital diagnosis, soft and hard tissue laser treatment, CEREC 3D, the Cadent iTero digital impression system, and the Gendex CD-500 HD 3D imaging unit.

Dr. Flucke consults with many high tech dental manufacturers and provides feedback on clinical usage of new techniques and devices.

He has spoken at many major dental meetings, including the ADA Annual Session, the Greater New York Dental Meeting, the Thomas P. Hinman Dental Meeting, the Yankee Dental Congress, and the Chicago MidWinter Meeting.

His presentation to us will include the latest cutting edge dental products in the morning and will focus on caries detection in the afternoon. Dr. Flucke’s versatility and his many prepared computerized presentations always allow those in attendance to direct his presentations, so show up with questions and topics you would like to see discussed!

Pro-Assurance will be presenting before Dr. Flucke, speaking on Dental Liability Update at 8:45 am.
